Important Information about your Account

Account Payments: If your account statement reflects a “New Balance”, you may pay it in full or in part at any time but, in any event, you must pay the Minimum Payment Due shown on the account statement by the Payment Due Date. Payments are applied in the manner set out in your account agreement.

If your account statement reflects a “Total Balance” or an “Amount Due”, you must pay it in full by the Payment Due Date. Payments are applied in the manner set out in your account agreement.

Sufficient time is required for payments to reach us by the Payment Due Date shown on the account statement. We will credit payments made through the mail to the Account on the date of their receipt by us.

When making payments by mail (cheque or money order only) please:

- indicate the payment amount on the return portion of the account statement,
- include the return portion of the account statement with your payment,
- make your cheque or money order payable to Home Depot Credit Services, and
- write your account number on the front of your cheque or money order.

Do not send cash by mail. Please also note that gift cards may not be used as a form of account payment.

Payments and other credits to the Account do not affect the amount of Credit Available you have under the Credit Limit until we update your Account. This update normally takes effect on the business day following the day we receive those payments and other credits. However, please note that in the case of large value account payments made by cheque or other payment instrument, the amount of Credit Available you have under the Credit Limit may not be adjusted for up to 15 days after the day we receive your large value payment or until that large value payment has cleared the financial institution on which it is drawn.

Account Transactions: You are responsible for all transactions posted to your Account. If you notice an error or omission on your account statement or if you need more information about a transaction or your Account, please contact us immediately at the toll-free number listed on the front of the account statement. As well, please refer to your account agreement, which sets out your rights and obligations regarding the verification of information appearing on account statements.

Interest Charges on Revolving Accounts Only: If you have a Commercial Revolving Card account, Interest Charges are calculated in the manner set out in your account agreement. Other information about Interest Charges are set out in the Disclosure Statement.

Fees: Fees are calculated in the manner set out in your account agreement. Other information about fees is set out in the Disclosure Statement.

Important Note About Email Communications: Information sent by email is not considered secure and privacy cannot be ensured. Therefore, please do not include confidential information such as account numbers, credit card numbers or other personal information by email.

Lost or Stolen Card: You must tell us immediately if your Card is lost or stolen or if you suspect it is lost or stolen. You may do this by calling the toll-free telephone number indicated on the front of the account statement.
